north of the Lankatica River (north of Leskovik). Some of the artillery positions and machine gun nests are covered with coarse concrete.

10. On Hill 962 (N. 24-52) there are five machine gun nests constructed of concrete. At (N. 26-52) there are four machine gun nests.

Albanian-Yugoslav Border Fortifications:

11. From Pogradec (N. 09-77) to Cerave (N. 03-82), and along the highway to the hills southeast, there are machine gun nests of reinforced concrete.
12. From Cerave to Pyrgos (southwest of Cerave) there are machine gun nests of concrete which control the two highways at that juncture.

Military Supplies and Ammunition Dumps:

13. There are stores of military supplies in the following cities and towns:
- a. Kavaje: chief stores of a base (sic). They consist for the most part of ammunition and foodstuffs, communications materiel, etc.
  - b. Pegim: terminus of the Durrës-Pegim railway. There are stores of clothing and shoes.
  - c. Librazhd: (G. 74-23), stores of ammunition, communications supplies, etc. These are old Italian storehouses.
  - d. Gjinokaster: stores for a division.
  - e. Korce: stores for a division.
  - f. Elbasan: stores for heavy artillery (300,000 shells for 152 mm. guns). Source notes that this is as yet unconfirmed.
  - g. Mashkullore: about position M. 43-06 there are stores of ammunition. Some of the storage is underground.
  - h. Kardhikag (R. 46-86): ammunition and other supplies.
  - i. Gjashte (R. 34-80): ammunition and other supplies.
  - j. Sarande: stores of food, supplies, and fuel near the harbor.
  - k. Bilisht: ammunition--stored in the village church.
  - l. Kapeshtice (N. 26-52): large underground store of ammunition at (N. 252-518) is under construction.
  - m. Polican: (M. 65-06): at the edge of the village on the road leading to Gjinokaster there is a store of ammunition within a chapel, measuring 6 by 4 meters.
  - n. At the Ali Riza Barracks in Tirana* there are stores of ammunition, communications materiel, and explosives. They are stored in a stone building and are partly underground and camouflaged. They are very difficult to discern from the air.
  - o. Vloche harbor: there are probably stores of clothing and war materiel.

- p. Gjorgucat: store of clothing and foodstuffs for the former 6 and 15 Border-Guard Battalions; the quantities are small, and supplies are renewed from Gjinokaster.
- q. On the road from Korce to Drenova (N. 07-52), at a distance of 10 meters to the right of the road, there is a store of weapons in the Church of Agia Trias; it is about 50 meters from the house on the edge of the city.
- r. At Mera Dishnice on the highway from Korce to Bilisht, at a distance of about 1,300 meters, there is a store of weapons.
- s. Near Durres, at a distance of about 500 meters from the city along the road leading to Porta Romana, there is a store of ammunition dug into the hillside. In one of the rooms there are boxes sheathed in metal which bear a sign "chemicals". 50X1-HUM
- t. About 6 kilometers from Durres at a place called Lefki Petra (White Rock), about 300 meters east of the road leading to Kavaje, there are several stores of ammunition, communications materiel, etc. 50X1-HUM
- u. About 4 kilometers from Durres to Rrasbull near the road leading to Tirana, and 500 meters to the north of this road, there is a store of ammunition dug into the hillside. 50X1-HUM
- v. It is rumored among Albanian resistance groups that the Communists have constructed secret stores of food, clothing, and war materiel in the mountainous regions for use in case of necessity. The most likely places are in the vicinity of Vlone, Kuc-Kalarat-Solena-Smokthina, and the mountainous area of Traje-Karabarun-Vouno because of the great proportion of fanatical Communists inhabiting these regions. The mountainous areas of Kurvelesh and Skrapari are also likely hiding places for Communists' emergency supplies.
- w. "Reserve Centers", i.e. stores, have been created near the borders and the bases of large Army units for the needs of the armed forces.

* Comment: [redacted] the Ali Zizly (sic) Barracks of Tirana were being used to store ammunition.
